

Declaration of Consent

Thank you so much for your interest in volunteering for AWG2016. This is a Declaration of Consent for anyone who registers as a volunteer for AWG2016. It provides a brief description of the conditions that a volunteer should be aware of and lists which criteria volunteers need to comply with.

Voluntary work, requirements and expectations - Voluntary work for AWG2016 is unpaid. The volunteer does not receive wages, reimbursements of expenses, daily allowance, food or lodging, unless agreed in advance in writing. AWG2016 expects that the volunteers arrive on time, participate in the necessary meetings and otherwise promptly report the cancellation of all activity as a volunteer for AWG2016. In particular, volunteers who are active in the period 29 February 2016 to 16 March 2016, must volunteer at least 20 hours in this period.

Confidentiality - All volunteers in AWG2016 are under a duty of confidentiality. This means that volunteers must not pass on any confidential information that has come into their possession during their work with AWG2016. Neither may they inform other volunteers or official persons of confidential information unless this is a result of the responsible execution of their respective tasks.

Laws and Certifications - As a volunteer for AWG2016, you must act in accordance with the laws in Greenland. Everyone who works as a volunteer in the period 29th February 2016 until 16th March 2016, must give AWG2016 Secretariat permission that their official records can be checked for any recorded criminal activity and that they are cleared to work with children. This is carried out for the safety of participants and volunteers. The AWG2016 Secretariat does not have access to the content of such records, but will receive information about approved records after they have been assessed by the police. A limited group of people in the AWG2016 organisation will handle all feedback from the police. However, if necessary, the secretariat always has the right to inform the organisation internally about persons who cannot be approved as volunteers.

Registration - Volunteers consent to being registered in a registry of volunteers, cf. Danish Law No 294 of 8th of June 1978 on Public Authority's Registers.

Insurance – Voluntary work is at one's own risk. However, in connection with voluntary work for AWG2016, volunteers are covered by public liability and worker's compensation insurance. AWG2016 will create procedures to prevent damage or loss. It is also expected that volunteers treat entrusted items and implements with care, and look after themselves and each other during the voluntary work.

Intellectual property rights, patents, rights of use, etc. - All material that is devised for and with AWG2016 is the property of AWG2016, without AWG2016 having to provide remuneration for such, including intellectual property rights and the right to make changes to what is produced. Photography or video recordings of events or volunteers may also be used by AWG2016 for promoting, reporting, marketing and in any other respect, without volunteers opposing this or demanding payment for the use.

Expulsion and dismissal - In the case of any violation or material breach of AWG2016's rules and guidelines, statement of consent, national law or in the case of any other misconduct against AWG2016's spirit and interests, AWG2016 reserves the right to dismiss or expel a volunteer.

PARENTAL CONSENT FORM – VOLUNTEERS 13-17 YEARS OLD

I, the undersigned, as parent to/legal guardian of the minor, hereby give my written permission for the below-named minor to apply to become a volunteer at the Arctic Winter Games 2016, and that if the application is approved, said minor may work as an unpaid volunteer for AWG2016.
